DePriest Stirs House In Color Ban Hearing

Congressman Commands Respect for Outspoken Attack on Discrimination by Federal Government in Washington

Washington, D.C. The DePriest attack was introduced in the House of Representatives January 31st. It was an investigation of the ban on color preference for public accommodation and segregated housing. The government was defeated the House of Representatives yesterday by a vote of 208 to 5. April 3, 1934

Mr. DePriest moves in the House of Representatives over the matter of the ban that has been in force for a long time. He pointed out that the House had passed such a bill last year, and that there was no reason why the House should not pass such a bill now. Mr. DePriest said that he would like to see the House pass such a bill, and he expected that the House would do so. The House of Representatives was in session at the same time that any white minority in the country did not.

Mr. DePriest is a man who wants to see the House of Representatives doing such a thing. It is a good thing that the House is in session. Mr. DePriest is not the only man who wants to see the House of Representatives doing a thing. There is a good many people who want to see the House of Representatives doing a thing.
