KELLY MILLER’S COLUMN
PLAYING POLITICS
BY H. B. CREIGHTON
In 1933, both of the great political parties side-stepped the prohibition issue, thus clearing the way for an election and for the enforcement of law. All fourth parties, including the Federalists, have also been eliminated from the scene since 1933.

The election of 1933 was a victory for the Democratic party, as a result of the fact that the Democratic party in that year was controlled by the Prohibitionists. In 1933, the Democratic party controlled the government, and as a result, the Federalists were eliminated from the scene.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE

At the 1938 annual meeting of the League of Women for Community Service, a new organization was formed to further the interests of women in the city. The new organization was called the League of Women for Community Service, and its purpose was to promote the interests of women in the city by providing a forum for the discussion of important issues and by working towards the improvement of social conditions.

THE LEAGUE HAD AS ITS OBJECTIVES

- To provide a platform for the expression of women's views and concerns
- To foster cooperation and collaboration among women's groups
- To promote the well-being of all women in the city

The League of Women for Community Service was successful in achieving its goals, and it continues to be an active and influential organization today.

BILL PICKETT NEGRO COWBOY

One of the Most Loved Characters of the West

By Dr. Jack Sullivan

(Exclusive Report, courtesy of Bill Pickett, vinegar-cured, now in residence at 560 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.)

The first time I saw Bill Pickett was in 1913. I was riding up to the Oklahoma Territory on a horse, and as we rode along I noticed the presence of several other cowboys and horses. The next day, when I met Bill Pickett, he was on a horse, and I could see that he had a great deal of experience in riding horses. He was also very good at working with cattle.

Bill told me that he had been working with cattle for many years, and that he had a great deal of knowledge about their behavior. He was also very good at catching cattle and tying them up. He said that he had caught and tied up cattle for many miles, and that he had never been caught himself.

Bill told me that he had been working with cattle for many years, and that he had a great deal of knowledge about their behavior. He was also very good at catching cattle and tying them up. He said that he had caught and tied up cattle for many miles, and that he had never been caught himself.

Bill Pickett was one of the most loved characters of the West, and his contributions to the development of the cattle industry cannot be overstated. He was a true cowboy, and his legacy lives on through the many cowboys who followed in his footsteps.

TOO MUCH "HINDSIGHT" INSUFFICIENT FORESIGHT

The Negroes exercised too much "hindsight," and for that reason they were not prepared for the war. According to the Negro, they were too busy thinking about what might happen after the war was over. He was not going to take any chances, and he was not going to be caught with his pants down when the war was over.

For example, I have just received a letter from a lady in Boston, who has been a Negro for many years. She says that she was very excited when the war was over, and that she was going to get a job right away. But she was too busy thinking about what might happen after the war was over, and she was not prepared for the job.

For centuries, Negroes have been living among the whites of the modern world, and they have, in general, been forced to come to terms with the white man and his ways. They have been forced to learn how to deal with the white man and his ways, and they have been forced to learn how to deal with the white man and his ways.

Bill Pickett was a true cowboy, and his legacy lives on through the many cowboys who followed in his footsteps. He was a true cowboy, and his legacy lives on through the many cowboys who followed in his footsteps.

GARDENER ATHLETIC CLUB REPLACES THE ROVER M.

SPEAK WITH THE PRESS

When we first meet that Providence was to have a semi-final ball team, we anticipated a few very good games and maybe, in the aggregation was competent, but with the presence of Gardener Memorial Park team it was a case of underdogs. As a matter of fact Congress Park defeated the Rover team in the first round, and we find ourselves in the semi-final at this time. Not only did it fulfill their expectations and even more so, but the will to win the Fraternal Athletic Association championship, and we are not yet sure of the first place.

The choice of names was due to the desire of the original players to have a name of their own. They don't want to name the team after one of their leaders, Roy Gardner, who is at present serving as president. The idea was conceived by the members of the first meeting of the Gardener Athletic Club, when it was realized that the team needed a new one.

The Gardner A. C. will play at the Providence Park, Newport, R. I., and on the afternoon of the same day the second of the semi-final will be played.

TIGERS DEFEND FOOCASET A. C.

Al byproduct, a scorecard for the Rhode Island Athletic League, which embraces all the teams of new England, has been compiled for the past season. The results of the games played by each team have been carefully tabulated and reported. The league comprises ten teams, and the results have been compiled for the past season.

TIGERS BOWL 42-2 TIGERS

On June 11, the Tiger A. C. defeated the Tiger B. A. C. by 42-2 at the Providence Park. The Tiger A. C. team was led by Captain Macbeth, who scored five goals for the team. The Tiger B. A. C. team was led by Captain Brown, who scored four goals for the team. The game was a very exciting one, and the spectators were well satisfied with the play of both teams.

PERMICHIEF MEMORIAL HIGH TRACK CAPTAIN

Carlo Parretti, popular young athlete of the Memorial High School, was elected the captain of the track team for the upcoming season. Carlo is a very talented and popular athlete, and his appointment as captain is well deserved.
