An Answer To Mr. Innes' Letter

Sponsor of Democt Gets Abroad at Progress of Chase. No Explanation of Favorable Attitude to Elks. Writer Questions Mr. Innes' Failure to Send Color to Council for Twenty Years.

T. A. Kilcher

In the last issue on the above topic, Mr. Innes declared favorably to Mr. Elks, and spoke of his plans for the future, as follows:

"I trust that by this time next year I will have sent to the Council for Twenty Years a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws of the organization, as well as a subscription to the 'Boston Chronicle.'"

Mr. Innes' letter is not understood by the fact that Mr. Innes, who was a member of the council, and Mr. Elks are not the same person, and that Mr. Elks' subscription was not sent to the council as advertised. Mr. Innes has now been in the position of the council for over twenty years, and has been in the council for over twenty years, and has been quite active in the council for over twenty years.

In the third paragraph of Mr. Innes' letter he stresses his sentimental feeling, and made several comments on the council. He also emphasizes the fact that he has been active in the council for over twenty years.

In this connection, Mr. Innes' letter is not understood by the fact that Mr. Innes, who was a member of the council, and Mr. Elks are not the same person, and that Mr. Elks' subscription was not sent to the council as advertised.

POLITICALLY, we support men and not Party

I want to see the time come when black men will regard themselves as full participants in the benefits and duties of American citizenship; when they will vote for the Democratic policy which offers them a fairer race in this country.

MR. INNEX explains

The Editor's Corner, Boston Chronicle, Boston, Massachusetts.

My attention has been called to a financial institution in which every negro who deposits money in the banks will be overcharged with interest, and every negro who borrows money will be charged with extra interest. I have not yet sent any message or letter, and have not been seen anywhere near the bank which has been accused of this wrong.

By now, the state of the nation's finances has been reduced to a low state, and the people have been seen everywhere, and the condition of the bank is in a better state than it was when it was first established.

WHICH WAY WILL YOU VOTE THIS FALL?

"Which way will you vote this fall?" is a question that is often asked. I have been asked this question many times, and I have always answered, "I will vote for the Democratic candidate." I believe that the Democratic candidate will be the best choice for the people of this country.

THEATRE

A COLD STARE AT SCOLLAY THEATRE

For the first time in its history, the Scollay Theatre is opening its doors for a special event. This is the first time that a motion picture has been shown at the Scollay Theatre. The event is called "A Cold Stare," and it is a new motion picture that has been released.

The movie is a thriller, and it features a young man who is on trial for murder. The young man is being tried in a court of law, and it is up to the jury to decide his fate.

The verdict is announced, and the young man is found guilty of murder. He is sentenced to be executed, and his body is taken to the execution chamber.

His body is placed on the table, and a noose is placed around his neck. The noose is tightened, and the young man is executed.

The audience is shocked, and many of them cry. The movie ends with the sound of the gunshot.
