A Daily Double
Is Not A Drink.

But It Is
One Of Suffolk Downs’
Happy Hours.

If this all seems like double-talk, come out to Suffolk Downs with your FREE Clubhouse Pass and find out what a Daily Double really is, and how happy hours only begin with a FREE admission.

Zip by our Customer Service Center and grab a complimentary copy of “Horse Racing 101.” It’s the only literate, educational guide to the ponies that you’ll ever need...and that’s no Double-talk.

Terror visit on Beacon Hill

by Richard Robert’s

A surge of goodwill and enthusiasm can be felt throughout the Suffolk Downs community as the popular, family-friendly site gears up for its annual Halloween festivities. Beginning this year, Suffolk Downs will offer a variety of entertainment options for guests of all ages, including a special performance by the renowned village band, the Mystic Mamas.

One of Suffolk Downs’ most popular attractions during Happy Hours will be the “Horse Racing 101” educational guide, which will be available to all visitors. The guide offers an in-depth look at the history and traditions of horse racing, and provides valuable tips for those new to the sport.

By Richard Roberts

Suffolk Downs, one of the most popular thoroughbred racing venues in the United States, will once again host its annual Happy Hours event on October 28th. The popular event, which offers free admission and complimentary refreshments, has become a beloved tradition among fans of the sport.

Suffolk Downs’ Happy Hours event provides an opportunity for visitors to experience the thrill of horse racing in a relaxed and welcoming atmosphere. The event typically features a variety of activities, including a live race simulcast, interactive displays, and live entertainment.

The most popular attraction at Suffolk Downs’ Happy Hours event is the “Horse Racing 101” educational guide, which offers an in-depth look at the history and traditions of horse racing. The guide is available for free to all visitors and provides valuable tips for those new to the sport.

In addition to the guide, Suffolk Downs’ Happy Hours event also features a variety of interactive displays, including a hands-on touch screen display that allows visitors to explore the history of horse racing. Visitors can also watch live simulcasts of horse races from around the world, and enjoy live entertainment from the Mystic Mamas, a popular village band.

Suffolk Downs’ Happy Hours event is a popular attraction for horse racing fans of all ages, and is a must-see for anyone visiting the area during Happy Hours. Visitors of all ages are welcome to join the fun and experience the thrill of horse racing in a relaxed and welcoming atmosphere.

For more information on Suffolk Downs’ Happy Hours event, please visit our website or call our customer service center. We look forward to seeing you at the track on October 28th!

Suffolk's main(e) campus is not in Boston

By Judith Neumann

Suffolk University's main campus is not in Boston. As of the fall 1979 term, the University has a number of teaching sites scattered across the city, each of which is a separate entity and operates under the name "Suffolk University." The main campus is located in the Seaport District, north of downtown Boston, and is easily accessible by public transportation. Despite its location in the city, Suffolk University is committed to maintaining a strong sense of community and providing a high-quality education to its students.
It took a Weill, but Clayburgh gets her turn

By Jeff Pursheim

"It took a Weill, but Clayburgh gets her turn," might be a pun, but it's also a reference to the fact that Rufus Wainwright's "It Took a Train" is a song that has been covered by multiple artists. Clayburgh, in this context, is likely referring to the actress who covered the song, giving her turn to perform it.

Searching for a killer: The First Deadly Sinatra

"Searching for a killer: The First Deadly Sinatra" is likely a title or a play on words, possibly referring to a film or a theatrical production about a storyline involving the famous singer and actor Frank Sinatra. The term "first deadly" could imply it's the first in a series or a part of a franchise.

The perfect stunt: Rush's movie about movies

"The perfect stunt: Rush's movie about movies" seems to be a reference to a film or a production by the band Rush, known for their concept albums and music. The phrase "the perfect stunt" might be a play on words, referring to a specific event or performance related to the band's activities.
