SGA rates their performance

I was at a Council of Presidents meeting the other night where a committee was formed to look into the financial aid situation here at Suffolk. It was decided that the committee would meet on a monthly basis starting in February. This is a step in the right direction towards solving the financial aid problem here at Suffolk.

The number of students who have to work to pay for college is increasing. This is a problem that needs to be addressed. As a Suffolk student, I know that many of us struggle to pay for our tuition and fees. This is not a situation that should be tolerated.

The committee will be responsible for investigating the current financial aid system and making recommendations for improvements. They will also be responsible for looking into the possibility of creating a new financial aid program for the students at Suffolk.

I believe that this is a step in the right direction towards solving the financial aid problem here at Suffolk. I hope that the committee will be successful in their efforts.

The story behind your Christmas tree

By Dave Allen

The saying goes, "The story behind your Christmas tree is as important as the tree itself." Indeed, the history of this beloved holiday tradition is rich and varied, offering glimpses into the past and the values that shaped our modern celebrations.

Originating in the tradition of tree worship, which dates back to pre-Christian times, the Christmas tree emerged as a way to celebrate the joy and spirit of the holiday season. By the 19th century, the tradition of decorating a live tree was well-established, and the Christmas tree as we know it today was solidified.

In the early 19th century, families would often bring a tree into their homes as a symbol of the season's rebirth. They would decorate it with candles, ornaments, and garlands to create a festive atmosphere. The tree would be the centerpiece of the holiday season, with families gathering around it to enjoy the warmth and companionship of the festivities.

As the 20th century progressed, the Christmas tree became an even more important part of the holiday season. People began to collect ornaments and spend time decorating their trees with care and attention. The tree became a symbol of family and togetherness, with memories and stories passed down from generation to generation.

Today, the Christmas tree remains a symbol of the season of giving and joy. It is a reminder of the values that have shaped our society, and a testament to the importance of family and community in our lives.

Dear Santa

To help you understand the tradition of the Christmas tree, I've included an excerpt from a book that explores the history and significance of this beloved holiday symbol.

strangers at Christmas

Dear Santa

Dear Santa,

We are the Suffolk Journal and we decided to write to you because we are interested in the Christmas season. We believe that Christmas is a special time, and we would like to hear more about the history and traditions of this holiday.

We are particularly interested in the story behind the Christmas tree. We would like to know how the tradition of decorating trees with lights and ornaments began, and how it became a symbol of the holiday season.

We are also interested in the history of Christmas lights. We would like to know how these lights were first used, and how they have evolved over time.

We believe that the history of the Christmas tree and the history of Christmas lights are important parts of the holiday season. We would like to learn more about these traditions, and we would like to hear from you.

Sincerely,
The Suffolk Journal
Christmas movies:

By Jeff Harmon

The season is upon us, and with it comes the annual Winter hiatus from reality that is Christmas movie season. This year, the offerings are as diverse as the holiday itself. From sweet romances to family fare to fantasy, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

THE MIRACLE ON 34th STREET (1947) - This classic holiday film stars Walter Brennan as a department store Santa who brings joy to a little girl named Susan who believes in Santa's existence. However, her mother (Maureen O'Hara) is skeptical. The film explores the power of belief and the joy of giving.

WHITE CHRISTMAS (1954) - Bing Crosby and Rosemary Clooney star in this musical about two musicians who decide to make their own Christmas special. With songs by Irving Berlin, this film is a festive treat.

FAMILY REUNION (1949) - This musical comedy stars Rosalind Russell as a woman who returns home for Christmas to reconcile with her ex-husband and family. The film is充满了欢笑和温暖.

GRUMPY OLD MEN (1993) - This comedy stars Jack Lemmon and Walter Matthau as two grumpy old men who are forced to share a Christmas with their ex-wives. The film is a heartwarming reminder that love can last a lifetime.

A Christmas Carol (1951) - This adaptation of Charles Dickens' classic novel stars Alastair Sim as Ebenezer Scrooge. The film is a timeless reminder of the true meaning of Christmas.

Bah Humbug!

The holiday season is a time for joy and giving, but sometimes it can be overwhelming. That's why it's important to remember the true meaning of Christmas - love, kindness, and compassion. So, let's all take a moment to appreciate the simple joys of the season and spread some cheer wherever we go.

For more Christmas movie recommendations, check out our holiday movie guide. And don't forget to spread some holiday cheer this season!

The most significant release of the season is certain to win all awards, Michael Caine as the title character in "Alfie." Jack Lemmon and Liza Minnelli star in "The Goodbye Girl," and the Bruce Dern-Bill Murray collaboration "The Cotti Dugans" is expected to reign supreme over the box-office. Other movies with strong competition are "The Candidate," starring Robert Redford, and "Murphy's Romance," starring Woody Allen. The season's best bet is "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," starring Jack Nicholson and Louise Fletcher.

THE COMPETITION: To beat films over the long holidays, "Alfie" has assembled a top-notch cast and crew, with stars such as Caine, Minnelli, and Lemmon. "The Goodbye Girl" features Lemmon and Minnelli, while "The Cotti Dugans" is directed by Carry Grant and starring Redford and Murray. "The Candidate" is directed by Mike Nichols and stars Redford, while "Murphy's Romance" is directed by Woody Allen and stars Allen and Diane Keaton. The season's top bet is "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," directed by Milos Forman and starring Jack Nicholson and Louise Fletcher.

Watch out for 'The Boogey Man'

The slender tale of man's deep love for music opens with the story of a man named John Lennon. In a small town, John is just like any other boy, except for one thing: he loves music. His first love is classical music, but as he grows older, he begins to explore other genres. He forms a band with his friends and they become local heroes. However, their lives take a turn when they encounter a mysterious figure who takes an interest in their music and begins to tutor them in the art of performance. As they become more successful, they attract the attention of a rival band who will stop at nothing to take them down. In the end, John must choose between his passion for music and his love for a girl named Yoko. Was it all a dream or did it really happen? Only time will tell.

Goodbye John Lennon

Lennon was the lead singer of the rock group The Beatles, and his contributions to the band's music were widely recognized. He was known for his distinctive voice and his ability to write catchy tunes. Lennon was also a political activist and a strong supporter of peace. He will be sorely missed by his fans and the music world.

Off Duty: Suffolk grad makes good

A Suffolk graduate has been making waves in the world of music. John Lennon, a recent graduate of Suffolk University, has been signed to a major record label and is set to release his first album. Lennon has been working on the album for several years, and it was recorded in various studios around the world. The album features a mix of rock, pop, and folk music, and it is sure to please fans of all ages. Lennon has been described as a talent with a unique voice and a great sense of humor. He is looking forward to sharing his music with the world and hopes to make a name for himself in the music industry.
Rams lose in double time to Southern Maine

By John Hoffer

Last Thursday, and last time in a long time, it seemed as if the Rams had once again found a winning formula. After falling behind early, the Rams were able to rally and come from behind to defeat the Southern Maine Huskies, 67-65.

Dear Santa

I've been a good girl this year and I've been very nice to everyone. I want to stay on your nice list this year. I want to get some presents for Christmas.

Growing up with gifts

When I was a little girl, I loved to get presents. I loved to open presents and see what was inside. But as I got older, I realized that presents were not the most important thing. The most important thing is the people you care about.

Xmas apprehension — College style

By Joelle Sturges

It seems only yesterday when all was Christmas cheer and the only thing that could spoil the holiday was the rain. But here we are, just days away from the busiest part of the holiday season, and the familiar dread of holiday cheer and the sound of bells ringing in our ears. But don't worry, we've got just the solution for you! Enjoy the holidays the Fulmer way!

Santa for the fun of it

By Phyllis Bellwars

There's a big difference between the holiday cheer at Christmas and the more subdued times of the year. And that's where Santa comes in! Santa makes the holidays extra special and brings joy to all those who believe in his magic. His smile, his laughter, his wisdom, and his ability to make everyone feel special make him an integral part of the holiday season.

New Year's Eve

By Carol Boudreaux

While the holidays are filled with joy and celebration, there's something special about New Year's Eve. The night is filled with excitement, hope, and the promise of a new year ahead. It's a time for reflection and renewal. The holiday season is over, but the year is just beginning. The future is bright, and we're ready to make it a wonderful year.
