Harris makes it 'big'.

By Darce O’Connell

As she did all last season on the small stage at the Special Events Committee's annual 24-hour Trivia contest, Harris proved again this weekend that she is more than capable of handling the big leagues. With her smooth voice and quick wit, Harris shone in her role as host of the 10th Annual Trivia contest, which was held in the Student Activities Office. Harris has a unique ability to keep the audience engaged and entertained, even when the questions get tough. Her knowledge and confidence shine through in every question, making her the perfect host for such an event.

ON TOP OF THE WORLD

Harris is now being sought after by television networks and production companies, looking to capitalize on her talent. With her recent success, Harris is being offered opportunities to host and participate in various events, both on and off campus. She is currently in negotiations with a major network for a weekly game show, which is set to air this fall.

Harris is grateful for the support she has received from her friends and family, who have encouraged her to pursue her dreams.

Mount Vernon fire causes minor damage

By Janis Williams

A fire that started in a vacant home on Mount Vernon Street was quickly contained and extinguished, causing minor damage.

At around 3 a.m. on Monday morning, the Mount Vernon Street Fire Department was called to respond to a fire report at a vacant home on Mount Vernon Street. The fire was quickly contained and extinguished by the fire department. The cause of the fire is under investigation, and no injuries were reported.

The fire cause was determined to be accidental. The exact cause of the fire is currently under investigation by the fire department.

According to the fire department, the house was occupied by people who were not aware of the fire, and the fire caused minor damage to the structure.

The fire was quickly extinguished by the fire department, and no injuries were reported. The cause of the fire is under investigation.

No one was hurt in the fire, and the damage was limited to the house. The fire department is working to determine the cause of the fire.
