AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION discusses resume writing

In Dr. N. R. Indian

Amidst a discussion on the Modern Day Resume, a free workshop was held at the ballroom of the modern club on October 6, 1981. The event was attended by a large portion of the student body. The workshop was conducted by Dr. N. R. Indian, a well-known career counselor from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. Dr. Indian emphasized the importance of creating a well-organized and effective resume. He also discussed the different sections of a resume and how to highlight one's strengths. The workshop received a positive response from the students who were present.

The performances by the leads in Neil Simon's latest play, Lost in the Dark, were criticized by some as not being true to Simon's original characters. However, the audience seemed to enjoy the play, which was well received by the critics. The play is about a mother and her daughter who are involved in a financial scandal. The director, Lawrence Kasdan, has praised the performances of the actors, particularly the lead, who plays the mother. The play opened to positive reviews, and audiences have been highly engaged in the performances. The setting of the play is a little known restaurant in New York City, where the characters gather to discuss their problems and plans. The play is a dark comedy, and the audience has been surprised by the unexpected turn of events. The performances by the actors, particularly the lead, were praised by the critics. The audience has been highly engaged and has given the play good reviews.
