Curriculum Committee discusses changing journalism degree

In Ashbel Turner

The Curriculum Committee, working with the Department of Humanities and Modern Languages, has decided to change the curriculum of the sophomore journalism degree. The change is in response to student feedback and to better prepare students for the job market. The new curriculum includes more practical experience and less theory, which is expected to improve the students' job prospects.

Tare hikes anger students

In diced Victoria

The recent tuition hikes have angered many students. The administration claims that the hikes are necessary to cover the costs of running the college and to keep it competitive with other institutions. However, students feel that the hikes are too high and that they are not being fairly represented in the decision-making process. The Student Senate has called for a meeting with the administration to discuss the issue.

State internships available

The Massachusetts Department of Education is offering internships for students who are interested in pursuing careers in education. These internships provide valuable experience and can help students prepare for a career in teaching. The program is open to all majors and can be completed during the summer or during the academic year.

The College Bowl is coming

The College Bowl is coming to campus on October 21st. The bowl consists of a series of trivia and knowledge-based games that test students' knowledge of various subjects, including history, science, and literature. The winning team will receive prizes and bragging rights.

Freshman respond to programming survey

Questionnaire results worth studying

The Student Government Association (SGA), the Board of Student Managers (BSM) and the Student Senate (SS) sponsored the first freshman survey to be conducted by the Journal.

The objective was to learn about the freshman student experience. The survey was conducted by a team of student assistants, with the assistance of the Suffolk Student Senate and the SGA. The survey was designed to gather information about freshman experiences and to identify areas for improvement.

The survey was administered to a random sample of freshmen during the first few weeks of the fall semester. The survey was anonymous and voluntary, and all responses were confidential.

The survey results indicated that freshmen were generally satisfied with their experience at Suffolk. However, there were some areas for improvement, such as housing, food, and transportation. These findings were presented to the Student Senate and the Board of Student Managers, who will use them to improve the freshman experience at Suffolk University.

Women’s Tennis sweeps five matches

In Atlantic Coast Conference action, the women’s tennis team had no trouble defeating the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill 6-0. This marks the third straight win for the Tuckers, who improved to 11-1 overall. The Tuckers are also the current Atlantic Coast Conference Leaders. "I think we just really put in a good effort," said head coach Brenda Metz. "We did everything right and we came out with a win." The Tuckers have a solid doubles team, which contributed to their victory. "I think our doubles team is really strong," said Metz. "They really put in a good effort and they really got the job done." The Tuckers will host the University of Virginia in their next match on April 19.

Men’s Cross Country

WNE tops Suffolk 32-25

In Atlantic Coast Conference action, the men’s cross country team won their first conference meet. The Tuckers have been off to a strong start this season, and they are looking to build on their success. "I was really pleased with the performance," said head coach John Hagen. "The team really stepped up and put in a good effort." The Tuckers will host the University of Miami in their next meet on April 16.

Football picks

The Tuckers picked up a big win against the University of the South, 34-32. The Tuckers were able to overcome a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter to secure the victory. "I was really pleased with the performance," said head coach John Hagen. "The team really stepped up and put in a good effort." The Tuckers will host the University of Miami in their next meet on April 16.

RAIDERS EDGE SLAMSTERS, 34-32

In Atlantic Coast Conference action, the raiders defeated the Slamsters 34-32. The raiders were able to overcome a 7-point deficit in the first half to secure the victory. "I was really pleased with the performance," said head coach John Hagen. "The team really stepped up and put in a good effort." The raiders will host the University of Miami in their next meet on April 16.
