Springtime on the Hill?
SGA candidates speak at open forum

By Susan Kaspian

The Student Government Association at Boston College held a forum on Tuesday, June 28, allowing students to voice their concerns. Approximately 50 students attended the event, many of whom had previously run for an SGA position. "It was a fun way to hear what the candidates had to say," said one student who attended the event.

Some of the many candidates at the recent SGA election speak.

Caldicott takes on the world

By Talia Gordon

On Wednesday, July 2, the world was introduced to Dr. Helen Caldicott, who took to the stage at the annual meeting of the World Medical Association. Caldicott, a British physician and author, has long been a critic of the nuclear arms race and the dangers of nuclear energy. In her speech, she called for a moratorium on the production and use of nuclear weapons and suggested that the medical community join forces to promote peace.

Candidates get their chance

By Tess O'Sullivan

The Student Government Association held a forum on Tuesday, June 28, allowing candidates to speak about their campaign platforms. The forum was open to all students and provided an opportunity for candidates to discuss their vision for the coming year. "We want to make sure that students know what we stand for," said one candidate. "We believe in making Boston College an even better place to be."

The gift of friendship

by Bruce Blais

When a high school student goes off to college, she leaves behind a world full of friends. The time she has shared with them will remain with her always. The friends she has made will be a part of her life, even after she has left them behind. But the time she has spent with them will remain with her always. The friends she has made will be a part of her life, even after she has left them behind.

The Music Grapevine...

IPA, the band that has been in the news recently, has released a new album. According to IPA's lead singer, the album is a departure from the band's previous work, focusing more on introspective and emotional lyrics. The album has received mixed reviews, with some critics praising the band's evolution and others questioning their decision to veer away from their signature sound.

Norris finally has hit with Silent Rage

Brian Lily and Chuck Norris are two of the stars of Silent Rage.

The music in the film is a mix of classic rock and contemporary pop. The score is by composer Richard Simmons, who has previously worked on other films and television shows.

Sen. Bond—'Say yes to life'

U.S. Senator John B. Bond has introduced a new bill that would allow patients with terminal illnesses to access experimental treatments. The bill has received mixed support, with some arguing that it would undermine the traditional medical system and others touting it as a necessary step to help those in desperate need.

Wacko.

Wacko.

The new album from the band Wacko is out now, and fans are raving about it. The album is a return to the band's roots, with a mix of punk, metal, and hard rock. The lead singer says that the band wanted to recapture the energy of their early days. The album has been described as a return to form, and fans are hoping that it marks the beginning of a new chapter for Wacko.

Reminder...
The deadline for filing applications for summer financial aid is Wednesday, April 14, 1982.

If you are applying for Session I assistance, you must have a completed application (FAF, Suffolk application, tax forms) for the 1981-82 academic year. If you would like to be considered for Session II you should have a completed application for the 1982-83 academic year.

Interested in both sessions? We need both applications on file.

Remember!
April 14, 1982
is the deadline.
