Financial aid cuts: will they affect you?

by Karen Y. Corbin
With cuts in financial aid and hikes in tuition, the cost of an education at Suffolk University will not be within the means of every student who occupies a desk this semester, and intends to return in the fall. Pressure put on by the Reagan Administration and institutions of higher learning may be too much for some students to bear.

Loans cutbacks foreseen

Management at Suffolk has proposed budget cuts for the 1987-1988 academic year, which will include cuts to the Loan office and some reductions in staff. Directors of the Loan office, in consultation with the Loan department, have recommended to President Daniel Pernis that the Loan office be closed, effective next September.

According to John Carino, director of the Loan office, if the Loan office were closed, several functions could be transferred to the Admissions Office and to the Student Services Office. A spokesperson for the Loan office stated that the funds would be used to hire new staff and to improve the services currently provided.

WSUB—Where are you?

WSUB, Suffolk’s student-run newspaper, was born in a time of need. It was founded in 1969 as a way for students to voice their opinions and to express their views on important issues. Today, WSUB is more than just a newspaper; it is a community of writers, artists, and photographers who come together to create something unique and important.

This year, WSUB is celebrating its 50th anniversary. To mark the occasion, we are hosting a special event on campus, where we will be printing a special edition of WSUB. We hope that you will join us in celebrating this milestone and in supporting WSUB as it continues to grow and evolve.

Death Wish II: more of the same

by Jo Scan

In 1979, Charles Bronson revolutionized the movie business with his role as the title character in "Death Wish." This summer, Bronson returns to the big screen with "Death Wish II," which promises to be just as thrilling and thought-provoking as the original.

The plot follows the same formula: Bronson, a retired police officer, is grabbed by a group of criminals who try to force him to murder. He refuses and initiates a series of brutal acts of revenge.

Rosten Shwartz, who played Bronson's daughter in "Death Wish," will be appearing at the film premiere.

Cross-Country runners to run in Marathon

Suffolk athletes in action—

by Marc issue Nides

The Suffolk cross-country runners are preparing for the first annual New England Championship Meet, set for April 17, at the University of Massachusetts in Amherst. The meet is a non-championship event, but Suffolk is hoping to place among the four traditional New England teams who usually dominate the field.

The meet is open to all choices of 5 and 10 mile run. Suffolk, who finished 12th last year, is hoping to drop at least 10 spots for a better showing this year. The runners are particularly looking forward to the meet because it is the last big meet of the season, and they hope to end the year on a high note.
