Follow this and additional works at: https://dc.suffolk.edu/journal

Recommended Citation

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Suffolk University Student Newspapers at Digital Collections @ Suffolk. It has been accepted for inclusion in Suffolk Journal by an authorized administrator of Digital Collections @ Suffolk. For more information, please contact dct@suffolk.edu.
Program Council Events

Marcella Ruble
"Palm Reader"
Friday, April 23
1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.
in the cafe
ta
Come see the Most Aus
to

RATHSKELLAR

FRIDAY, APRIL 30 7 P.M. S.U. THEATRE

THE SPRINGEST COMMITTEE PRESENTS

A new and exciting musical
to

The admission: All invited to attend

Congratulations to next year's Program Board
President: John McDonnell
Vice President: Gino DePamphilis
Treasurer: Marie Deveau
Secretary: Marie Deveau
Social Committee Chairperson: Kevin Connal
Visicom Committee Chairperson: Tom Papatsoris
Publicity Committee Chairperson: Debbie Mancini
Special Events Committee Chairperson: Charles Russo
Performing Arts Committee Chairperson: Colleen Devie
Rathskellar Committee Chairperson: Richard Willworth

Suffolk Journal

The Computer Revolution Hits Suffolk

BY JOHNA ALABSO

COMPUTERS, COMPUTERS, AND MORE COMPUTERS. THEY ARE EVERYWHERE; THEY ARE AS LIMITLESS AS INFINITY. THEY WILL ALTER THE LIVES OF EVERYONE ON THE EARTH IN THE FUTURE.

THE DECADE OF THE 80'S WILL BE KNOWN IN HISTORY AS THE AGE OF GREAT TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANCEMENT THAT PROPELLED MAN FURTHER IN HIS EVOLUTION THAN HE DREAMED JUST YEARS AGO. (SEE COMPUTER, PAGE 11)

(See McCoy photo)
Suffolk hosts financial aid conference

by Nancy Shriver

Presidents, admissions officers, and student leaders from across the northeast discussed the state of the financial aid market at a conference on April 20.

The conference was sponsored by the Suffolk Financial Aid Office, and was attended by presidents and other key administrators from Boston, Harvard, and Northeastern universities. Boston University, Harvard Business School, and the Harvard Mailer's student-run magazine, the Bostonian, were also represented.

At the conference, speakers discussed the current state of financial aid, the effects of the recession on higher education, and the future of the market.

New York University President John Sexton said that the recession has had a significant impact on higher education, with enrollment and revenue declining. He noted that the NEA National Association of Teachers and School Employees is pressuring the state of New York to increase its support for higher education.

Suffolk President Abraham Podell said that the financial aid market is undergoing a significant transformation, with an increasing focus on need-based aid.

The conference was sponsored by the Suffolk Financial Aid Office, and was attended by presidents and other key administrators from Boston, Harvard, and Northeastern universities. Boston University, Harvard Business School, and the Harvard Mailer's student-run magazine, the Bostonian, were also represented.

At the conference, speakers discussed the current state of financial aid, the effects of the recession on higher education, and the future of the market.

New York University President John Sexton said that the recession has had a significant impact on higher education, with enrollment and revenue declining. He noted that the NEA National Association of Teachers and School Employees is pressuring the state of New York to increase its support for higher education.

Suffolk President Abraham Podell said that the financial aid market is undergoing a significant transformation, with an increasing focus on need-based aid.

"Prisoners of conscience"

by John Corbett

...continued...

"Prisoners of conscience"

by John Corbett

...continued...

For one Suffolk student, it's O'Neill for governor

NEWS PROFILE

By: Kevin McCoy

O'Neill for governor?

O'Neill, who has served as a Suffolk University trustee and the state's commissioner of education, is the leading Democratic candidate for governor in 2002.

"I'm running to make sure that the students at Suffolk and all Massachusetts' students are getting a job in the future," O'Neill said.

As the chief financial officer for the state, O'Neill said he has been able to bring some changes to the state's budget, including the elimination of a number of regressive sales taxes.

"I'm running to make sure that the students at Suffolk and all Massachusetts' students are getting a job in the future," O'Neill said.

As the chief financial officer for the state, O'Neill said he has been able to bring some changes to the state's budget, including the elimination of a number of regressive sales taxes.

O'Neill's position also includes a focus on higher education, with the establishment of the New England Board of Higher Education and the creation of a new commission to study the issue of public higher education.

"I'm running to make sure that the students at Suffolk and all Massachusetts' students are getting a job in the future," O'Neill said.

As the chief financial officer for the state, O'Neill said he has been able to bring some changes to the state's budget, including the elimination of a number of regressive sales taxes.

O'Neill's position also includes a focus on higher education, with the establishment of the New England Board of Higher Education and the creation of a new commission to study the issue of public higher education.

Stockbrokers speak on job availability

by Jim Corbett

Stockbrokers speak on job availability

by Jim Corbett

...continued...

...continued...
IN BRIEFS

Ball ticket price to stay at $25

By Jennifer Pearson

The Songbirds, one of the Suffolk University women's basketball teams, will maintain its $25 ticket price for the upcoming season. The decision was made by the Songbirds' varsity squad and the forefront of the university administration. The ticket price will remain the same for the upcoming season, which will run from October through March. The Songbirds are scheduled to play 15 home games, including six conference matches.

Media positions filled

By J. O. Buehler

The Suffolk Journal has filled several media positions with the appointment of new editors and reporters. The new appointments bring a fresh perspective and enthusiasm to the newspaper's coverage of campus events and news. The new editors and reporters will be responsible for overseeing the production and distribution of the newspaper, ensuring that it remains a valuable resource for students, faculty, and alumni.

Editorial Board

Gold Key: A big joke

This week's Suffolk Journal contains an article that many would consider a big joke. The article, written by a member of the editorial board, is humorous and satirical, but some readers may not find it appropriate for a university newspaper. The article is intended to be a light-hearted take on current events and campus life, but it may not be suitable for all readers. The editorial board takes full responsibility for the content of this article and encourages readers to engage with a sense of humor.

Ball tickets too expensive

The Suffolk Student Athletics Association is not pleased with the cost of Suffolk University tickets for the upcoming season. The tickets, which include access to all home games, cost $25 and are available for purchase online. The association has expressed concern that the cost is too high and that it may be difficult for students to afford. The association is working with the university to find a solution that will make the tickets more affordable for students.

LETTERS

Good luck to next year's runners

I would like to take this opportunity to wish the members of the Suffolk Journal well as they begin their next year of service. The Journal is an important part of the university community and plays a crucial role in keeping students informed about campus events and news. I hope that the Journal will continue to be a valuable resource for students, faculty, and alumni, and that it will remain a vibrant and dynamic publication.

Next week's Journal will be the last of the semester

The Journal will be on break for the last week of the semester. Next week's issue will be published on Tuesday, but there will be no issues published in the following week. The Journal will return to regular publication the following week, on Tuesday, November 1.

All advertisers are due at noon on Tuesday before publication.

Suffolk Journal

4 Temple St.
Boston, MA 02114
(617) 733-4700 x323

Every issue of this paper presents an opportunity to communicate with the students, faculty, and alumni of Suffolk University.

—Joseph Pulver

Suffolk Journal

Editorial Staff
Reflections of a June grad...

At least one student will miss Suffolk

by Susan Davis

Parents are a strange and funny species. They come in all shapes and sizes: the tall, thin ones, the short, fat ones. But all of them share one thing in common: they are your parents. And no matter how much you may hate them sometimes, they'll always be there for you. They'll always love you, regardless of what you do. And most importantly, they'll always be there to help you when you need it.

If one could dream...

by Diane Moore

I've always liked to dream.
Daydreams, nightdreams, dreams of all kinds. Sometimes I have whimsical dreams, and other times I have nightmares. But no matter what kind of dream
I have, I always wake up feeling refreshed.

Working to get your parents' attention

by Judy Berk

Parents are a mysterious species.
They come in all shapes and sizes:
the tall, thin ones, the short, fat ones. But all of them share one thing in common: they are your parents. And no matter how much you may hate them sometimes,
they'll always be there for you.
They'll always love you, regardless of what you do. And most importantly, they'll always be there to help you when you need it.

Side Tracks

Working to get your parents' attention

by Judy Berk

Parents are a mysterious species.
They come in all shapes and sizes:
the tall, thin ones, the short, fat
ones. But all of them share one thing in common: they are your parents. And no matter how much
you may hate them sometimes,
they'll always be there for you.
They'll always love you, regardless
of what you do. And most importantly, they'll always be there
to help you when you need it.
ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

B-52's still lack seriousness of supergroups

By Warren Court

In his B-52's ritualistic final curtain call — May Day, May 20th, Capital Centre, 2019 — singer and rhythm guitarist Kate Pierson ALL RIGHT, WE'LL CALL IT A DAY and frontman Fred Schneider have been charting their next destination. It seems they're heading to the B-52's Backyard and off to the B-52's Backyard. A few weekends later, they're off to the B-52's Cookout. And then, Fred's off to the B-52's Beach... maybe.

With the band's back to us, Fred and Kate are seated... or standing... or sitting... but definitely not standing... in a semi-circle at the back of the stage. We're not even sure what they're doing. It looks like they're whispering to each other. Or maybe they're just... I don't know... talking. But not to us. It's like they're in another world. Another universe. Another reality.

The B-52's brought their jazzy influx to the stage.
SPORTS

Rams ailing, drop 4 in a row

by Dave Domingos

SMU 13; Suffolk 6

Suffolk basketball season is off to a bad start as the Rams lose four straight.

Jim Miller (left) has his eye on the ball while Jay Blackwell (right) has been giving the Rams a taste of their own medicine.

Bryant 11; Suffolk 6

Suffolk had a double header with Bryant University this past Sunday. It was the first game of two that the Rams played against the Bulldogs.

In the first game, Suffolk came out on top, winning 11-6. The second game was a close one, with Suffolk winning 6-5. Despite the losses, Suffolk's players showed determination and fought hard throughout both games.

Sports Highlight—Romano leads the way for the Rams

In a recent game, Suffolk's Romano led the way with his impressive performance. He scored three goals and had an assist, helping the Rams secure a crucial victory.

How to do well in Economy Class

Simple: Keep your cap at a comfortable angle, ensure your seats are tilted at a 90° angle, and avoid any unnecessary movement. Plus, don't forget to use the coin-operated seat covers provided in the economy class section.

Economy Class

No one makes Economy Class as economical as we do.

Capitol

The Lowest Rates

For reservations, call your Travel Agent or contact us at 1-800-555-5555.
Cash for Books
CLOTH OR PAPER
WHETHER USED ON THIS CAMPUS OR NOT
Suffolk University
Bookstore Half price given for all texts used in Fall Semester

UP TEMPLE STREET
ACTIVITIES PERIOD
TUESDAY, MAY 4
New Directions
F530
F603
S421
S423
S426
S428
S522
S524
S821
S921
S929
S936
CIS Club
Society Club
Delta Sigma Pi
Phi Chi Theta
Mini Course: Aerobics
S522
S524
THURSDAY, MAY 6
Council of Presidents
S423
S424
S522
S524

Special meeting called, voting unchaged
Awards voting sparks SGA debate

The ‘great newsmen in the sky’

by Linda Griffin

Recently, an article in Pulitzer's Andy heard Mr. Ten Hafel's ideas to select the time I've spent as a

The award, made to the SGA 'Awards voting sparks SGA debate

SGA lore

I'm not sure how we came to be, but I do know

that we've been proud of all of us

and that I have learned a lot along the way.

I am also pleased to say that I have managed to form friendships which have been a help to me in my future endeavors.

I also want to thank you for the kindness and generosity of the people who have been involved

with us. Financially, I regard my

opportunity very

enough of my ideas.

Although the situation has gained, I have never felt

that we had a problem in communicate.

I was always happy to see

and was sometimes come up with ideas that would important. I now. I should lament some of my new

and to amend my mistakes. I'm not sure how

we came to be, but I do know

that we've been proud of all of us.

Awards voting sparks SGA debate

Awards voting sparks SGA debate

The ‘great newsmen in the sky’

by Linda Griffin

Recently, an article in Pulitzer's Andy heard Mr. Ten Hafel's ideas to select the time I've spent as a

The award, made to the SGA 'Awards voting sparks SGA debate

SGA lore

I'm not sure how we came to be, but I do know

that we've been proud of all of us.

and that I have learned a lot along the way.

I am also pleased to say that I have managed to

form friendships which have been a help to

me in my future endeavors.

I also want to thank you for

the kindness and generosity of

the people who have been involved

with us. Financially, I regard my

opportunity very

enough of my ideas.

Although the situation has gained, I have never felt

that we had a problem in

communicate.

I was always happy to see

and was sometimes
come up with ideas that would

important. I now. I should

lament some of my new

and to amend my

mistakes. I'm not sure how

we came to be, but I do know

that we've been proud of all of us.

Awards voting sparks SGA debate

Awards voting sparks SGA debate

The ‘great newsmen in the sky’

by Linda Griffin

Recently, an article in Pulitzer's Andy heard Mr. Ten Hafel's ideas to select the time I've spent as a

The award, made to the SGA 'Awards voting sparks SGA debate

SGA lore

I'm not sure how we came to be, but I do know

that we've been proud of all of us.

and that I have learned a lot along the way.

I am also pleased to say that I have managed to

form friendships which have been a help to

me in my future endeavors.

I also want to thank you for

the kindness and generosity of

the people who have been involved

with us. Financially, I regard my

opportunity very

enough of my ideas.

Although the situation has gained, I have never felt

that we had a problem in

communicate.

I was always happy to see

and was sometimes
come up with ideas that would

important. I now. I should

lament some of my new

and to amend my

mistakes. I'm not sure how

we came to be, but I do know

that we've been proud of all of us.