October 19 1 p.m.
Delta Sigma Pi
Modern Languages Club
Phi Sigma Sigma
November 1
Modern Languages Club
Psychology Club
11th Pledge Meeting
Amazing Jonathan (magician)
Alpha Phi Sigma
PCB Film

For Suffolk Students
Classified cost $1.00 for 4 lines (35 characters per line) and 25¢ for each additional line.
Forms at RL19

Rally draws officials, few students

by Joshua Matson

If you have ever been to a rally, you know how it is advertised. "Rally draws hundreds of people!" it seems to say. Hype is a great way to sell something, and few rallies have been advertised as a "false alarm."

Then again, few rallies have been advertised "to draw people away from the Student Center" like Tuesday's "Rally of Indignation." priced at $1.00 for 4 lines (35 characters per line) and 25¢ for each additional line. Forms at RL19

the Suffolk Journal

October 21, 1982
Evacuation procedures inadequate

In Carol Caramanica

There has recently been a great deal of discussion about the adequacy of evacuation procedures in the event of a fire in the Student Union. As a result, the Student Government has reviewed its own procedures and has decided to implement several changes to improve safety. These changes include the addition of more emergency exit signs and the creation of a more detailed evacuation plan. The Student Government is also conducting regular drills to ensure that all students and faculty are aware of the procedures in case of an emergency. Additionally, they are working with the University's facilities department to ensure that all emergency equipment is in proper working order. Overall, the Student Government is committed to ensuring the safety of all those who use the Student Union.

SPANISH FIESTA!

"Carribean Night"

- Live entertainment with a Latin Band
- Exhibition of Caribbean Dances
- Refreshments

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 7:30 - 11 p.m. SAWYER CAFETERIA

ALL NON-CUON Students INVITED!
Five international students are expected. Sponsored by the Student Language-Lit Club and the Black Students Association.

Jobi

Dedicated to the Art of Self-Indulgence

Beacon Hill's most carefully selected choice of fine wines. Wide selection of domestic and imported cheeses.

RESUME SPECIAL

100 copies of one original on quality stationery paper
50 matching blank sheets
50 matching blank envelopes
$17.50 plus tax

The Suffolk Journal will be selling and delivering to the "ghoul" of your choice

Don't be ghoulish this Halloween!

Send your favorite sweetie a real treat

Proceeds will go to the Dr. Richard Bray Scholarship Fund

Ralliers urged to vote

Senator Paul shoreline (Photo)

Part of the space crowd at the Rally.

Proceedings will go to the Dr. Richard Bray Scholarship Fund
Program Council features first lecturer

By Carles Adams

Performing Arts Chair Colleen Dunn will be featuring the "Two Faces of Billy"

WSFR

Once again is proud to present

Boston's Best Bands

Monday, Oct. 25, at 11:00 - Mark D'Antona and Richard Mackenzie of the Darkies with WSFR DJ Laurie (POD) Cameraker

Thursday, Oct. 28, at 2:30 - The Dogmatiks: Peter & Paul O'Halloran, Jerry Lehane, and Tommy Long with WSFR DJ Jodi (POD) Mantoniana

Buying or Selling? See the Classifieds
Page 12.

WSUB-TV

presents

A HORROR DOUBLE FEATURE

American Werewolf in London and "The Howling"

Coming Friday Oct. 29
Sawyer Cafe at 11 a.m.

SJRB to be convened

Foreman's director Edward J. Harris

How does Suffolk spell success? - forensic

by David Gas

"The key to solving the murder mystery is the use of forensic science."..."

Full and Part-Time Seniors

Applications are available for nominations to:
Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges

Requirements:
Cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or above

Pick up application forms in the SAO.
Form must be returned by Nov. 19, 1982.

SEMIESTER IN SPAIN

Form must be returned by Oct. 20, 1982.
EDIT ORIAL S

Suffolk Journal
8 Ashburton Place
Boston, MA 02108
617/723-4700 x323

Quote of the week:

Always wanted to write... for a newsgame... just want to gain some practical journalism experience. Now is your chance. The Journal is looking for new feature writers for the academic year. We are looking for enthusiastic, dedicated people who also want to make a contribution to the Suffolk community. Whether you write short stories, numerous poems, do cartoons or want to write about interesting people, places or businesses we are interested in having you on the Journal's feature staff. Even if you have not written before there is a place for you. Come down to RIII 117 and ask for Ted.

---

As for now

Wilson's dream in failing health

By John Wilson

This week, Wilson's dream in failing health reached a tragic point. The 52-year-old Bostonian who had been working as a journalist for the past 20 years was diagnosed with an inoperable brain tumor. Wilson, who was known for his dedication to his craft, was forced to leave his job and move to a nearby town, where he could receive better care. Despite the setback, Wilson remains optimistic and continues to work on his novel.

---

In Brief

Suffolk grads win contest

In brief, Suffolk's 1982 graduates have won a contest for the best student newspaper. The winning paper was chosen by a panel of judges who evaluated the newspapers based on their content, design and overall quality. Suffolk's newspaper has been praised for its coverage of important issues and its ability to provide a platform for student voices.

---

False alarm raises questions

By John Smith

False alarm raises questions and concern among students. The recent false alarm at Suffolk University raised questions about the university's emergency procedures. Students were concerned about the lack of communication during the false alarm and the impact it had on their ability to complete their studies. The university has promised to review its emergency procedures and to improve communication during such situations.

---

It's a small, small world after all

By Ronald Reagan

Ronald Reagan

This Place Reserved For You

Always wanted to write for a newspaper or just want to gain some practical journalism experience? Now is your chance. The Journal is looking for new feature writers for the academic year. We are looking for enthusiastic, dedicated people who also want to make a contribution to the Suffolk community. Whether you write short stories, numerous poems, do cartoons or want to write about interesting people, places or businesses we are interested in having you on the Journal's feature staff. Even if you have not written before there is a place for you. Come down to RIII 117 and ask for Ted.

---

Guest columnists are accepted by the Journal

Deadline is Tuesday at noon
SIDE TRACKS

Sharing the mattress with Charles Lacquidara

He is carefully considers the question of what is the worst influence in America... he responds “sugar” as he pours a couple of packets into his coffee.

The story is a fact that he doesn’t know how much of it is true or not. It seems to be a truth that the experience of sugar has been the worst influence in America. He says that sugar is the worst influence that he has ever experienced. He also says that sugar is the worst influence that he has ever experienced.

He carefully considers the question of what is the worst influence in America... he responds “sugar” as he pours a couple of packets into his coffee.

The story is a fact that he doesn’t know how much of it is true or not. It seems to be a truth that the experience of sugar has been the worst influence in America. He says that sugar is the worst influence that he has ever experienced. He also says that sugar is the worst influence that he has ever experienced.
Top-notch cast makes ‘Foxfire’ glow

Jessica Tandy and Hume Cronyn charm their “audience”

Jessica Tandy and Hume Cronyn in Foxfire, the new production of the Drama

In The Wings

Real-life wedding for “Guiding Light” duo

Paul Pruden (The Wedding) (R. Scott Reeder Photo)

You’ll be ‘Lookin’ to Get Out’ of this one

Jon Vargh, Amna Parthe and Ruth Young in “Lookin’ to Get Out.”

Come to RL19 and write for Arts

Come to RL19 and write for Arts
MUSIC

Individual sounds come together in Gang of Four

by Caroline Harris

The Gang of Four is a new and exciting band on the British club scene. Their music is a combination of punk energy and pop hooks, making them a favorite among the young crowd. The band consists of Andy Gill, John peel and Jon King, who bring a unique sound together in a surprising way.

In a recent review, Caroline Harris describes the Gang of Four's sound as a fusion of punk and pop, with catchy hooks and driving rhythms. The band's live shows are described as energetic and engaging, with Andy Gill's guitar work being a standout feature. Caroline Harris praises the band's ability to create a sense of unity among the crowd, with their music appealing to fans of both punk and pop.

The Gang of Four's sound has been described as a new wave of punk, with influences from the post-punk era mixed with elements of new wave and synth-pop. Their music has been compared to bands like The Jam and The Police, with their songs often featuring political and social commentary.

In conclusion, the Gang of Four is a band to watch, with their unique sound and engaging performances. Their music is sure to appeal to fans of both punk and pop, making them a must-see act in the British music scene.

---

album review

The Who say farewell

by Graeme User

The Who have announced that they will be finishing up their current tour by releasing a live album of their performance at the Hammersmith Odeon. The band's upcoming tour will be their last, as they plan to retire after completing the tour. The Who are known for their powerful live performances, and fans are eagerly anticipating the release of the live album.

In an interview with the Sunday Times, lead singer Roger Daltrey revealed that the band's decision to retire was due to age and personal reasons. He stated, "It's time to let the kids have their turn." The Who have been a dominant force in the British music scene since the 1960s, with hits like "My Generation" and "Pinball Wizard." Their influence can be heard in the music of countless bands, and they continue to be a source of inspiration for younger musicians.

The Who's final tour will be a testament to their longevity and impact on the music world. Fans can expect to see a mix of old favorites and new material on the tour, with the live album capturing the energy and excitement of the live shows. The Who's decision to retire marks the end of an era, but their influence will continue to be felt for generations to come.

---

Who are you going to vote for?

by Debby Angle

As the election season heats up, voters are faced with the decision of who to support. With a choice between Democratic candidates Joe Biden and Kamala Harris, or Republican candidates Donald Trump and Mike Pence, the decision is tough. But for some, the decision is already made.

Debby Angle, a student at the University of Southern California, has already made up her mind. She plans to vote for Joe Biden and Kamala Harris, citing their policies on healthcare, education, and climate change as reasons for her support.

"I don't vote in the primaries and I probably won't vote in the primaries," she said. "But I'm definitely voting for Joe Biden and Kamala Harris." DebbyAngle is not alone in her support of the Democratic candidates. Many young voters feel a similar connection and are eagerly waiting for the day they can cast their ballots for change.

In conclusion, with just a few weeks until election day, the decision of who to vote for is a tough one. But for some, like Debby Angle, the choice is already made. The election is just a few weeks away, and it's time to make your voice heard.
Women's tennis team proves abilities

By Susan Danaher

The women's tennis team has proven its abilities this season, and the team's success continues to attract attention. The team has managed to make it to the state championships this year, and both singles and doubles matches have been won. The team is comprised of a mix of returning players and new recruits, with strong performances coming from all around.

Let's talk sports

Surprise for Coach Nelson

By Marc Kinney

There's been a surprise in the familiar. Jeff Baggett, the new head coach of the Suffolk men's tennis team, has announced his resignation. The team has had a successful season thus far, but Nelson is stepping down to focus on his family and other commitments.

Raiders' basketball strategy

The Raiders had a successful season last year, and their offensive strategy was a key factor in their success. The team used a fastbreak and a pressure defense, which allowed them to gain control of the game early on. This led to a string of wins, and the team's momentum carried them through the rest of the season.

Notes from the Suffolk athletic department

There have been some changes in the athletic department recently. The Suffolk Men's Basketball team has been practicing hard, and the team is looking forward to a successful season.

Support Suffolk

Sports!

Next week:

An in-depth report on the Athletic Program at Suffolk

The athletic program at Suffolk is getting some attention in the news. The team's success and the high standards of competition they are facing have been highlighted in recent reports. The program is looking to continue its growth in the coming years, and the team is working hard to achieve their goals.

Part Two

Hockey '82-'83: Smythe and Norris divisions

By John Beecher

The hockey season at Suffolk was a success last year, and the team was able to compete at a high level. The Smythe and Norris divisions were tough, but the team managed to win against some strong opponents. This year, the team is looking to build on their previous success and continue their winning streak.

Tri-State meet results

Continued on page 2

A group of students participated in a Tri-State meet this season. The meet was held in a nearby city, and the Suffolk team did well, taking home several victories. This year, the team is looking to improve on their previous results and continue to excel in the competition.

Sawyer false alarm

A false alarm at the Suffolk athletic department was quickly resolved. The athletic department was put on alert due to a false report, but the situation was clarified soon after. The team is working hard to prevent any similar incidents from happening in the future.

Students' basketball try-out

Cheerleading try-outs will be held in the Auditorium on Tuesday, October 26, at 1:00 p.m.

Women's Basketball practice begins November 1

New candidates are still being accepted. Sign up with coach Rossi in the Athletic Department, Office 3.

Part Three

Hockey '82-'83: Kanter, Smith, and Levens

By John Beecher

The hockey season at Suffolk continued with the Kanter, Smith, and Levens divisions. The team was able to compete at a high level, and they managed to win against some strong opponents. This year, the team is looking to build on their previous success and continue their winning streak.

Tri-State meet results

Continued on page 2

A group of students participated in a Tri-State meet this season. The meet was held in a nearby city, and the Suffolk team did well, taking home several victories. This year, the team is looking to improve on their previous results and continue to excel in the competition.

Sawyer false alarm

A false alarm at the Suffolk athletic department was quickly resolved. The athletic department was put on alert due to a false report, but the situation was clarified soon after. The team is working hard to prevent any similar incidents from happening in the future.

Students' basketball try-out

Cheerleading try-outs will be held in the Auditorium on Tuesday, October 26, at 1:00 p.m.

Women's Basketball practice begins November 1

New candidates are still being accepted. Sign up with coach Rossi in the Athletic Department, Office 3.
Sawyer false alarm

Continued from page 7

The statement was "false." It seems that the alarm was set off by natural causes and not because of any suspicious activity.

Support Suffolk Sports!

Notes from the athletic office...

Cheerleading try-outs will be held in the Auditorium on Tuesday, October 26, at 1:00 p.m.

Women’s Basketball practice begins November 1.

New candidates are still being accepted.

Sign up with coach Rossi in the Athletic Department, Ridgeway 3.

College Bowl is back!!

Registration
Oct. 25-29 in SAO or Cafeteria
$5 per team
$1 individuals

Don’t Miss It!!!

Competition begins November 9th.
The varsity sport of the mind!

Program Council

Upcoming Events

Movie:
The Deerhunter
Thursday, Nov. 4
1:00 p.m.
In the Auditorium
Free Admission

Suffolk ID Required

Fall Semester

September 23
The Rising Bull
October 7
Midnight Express
October 12
The Song Remains the Same
October 21
The Onion Field
November 4
The Deer Hunter
November 18
Rocky I

Our meetings are held every Tuesday in Fenton 134 C at 1:00.
Get Involved!!