SGA denies Italian Week allocation

by Jose Inveces

The Student Government Association (SGA) denied the allocation for Italian Week. The Italian American Student Association (IASA) had written the SGA requesting the allocation. The SGA denied the request due to a lack of funds. The SGA also stated that they had to make cuts in order to balance the budget. The SGA denied the request for Italian Week because they did not have enough funds to cover the costs.

NEXT SCIENTIST

The next scientist will be a young woman, not a young man. The number of female scientists has grown significantly in recent years, and many experts predict a continued rise in female representation in the field. This change is attributed to increased awareness and support for women in STEM fields.

(Left) Suffolk's Greek Night was a success. The event was held in the University Union and featured live music, Greek dancing, and a variety of Greek food. It was attended by many students and faculty members, who enjoyed the atmosphere and the company of others. The event was well-organized and well-received, with many people expressing their appreciation for the opportunity to learn more about Greek culture and history. Overall, the Greek Night was a great success, and everyone who attended had a great time. (Right) Suffolk's Greek Night was a success. FACTS FROM THE OFFICE OF FINANCIAL AID

Did you know that...

On November 8, 1982, the Massachusetts State Senate voted favorably on Senate Bill 2099 which would increase financial assistance for Massachusetts students by $25 million for 1983-84! (This bill replaced S. 1833 which has been locked in committee for several months.)

Senate Bill 2099

1. The State Scholarship program would be funded with an additional $14 million statewide. This would raise the academic year award amount for an eligible recipient to $1250 (presently $900)

2. The Matching Grant Program would receive an additional $2 million for a total of $6 million in grant assistance

3. Three new programs would be established:
   a. A Massachusetts State Work-Study Program of $5 million for use at both public or private employers;
   b. A Graduate Student Grant Program of $3 million which at least $1 million must be matched at a 50% level by private business and industry;
   c. A low income assistance program of $1 million for heads of households attending school.

S. 2099 would not increase state taxes as it is tied to general revenue.

With reductions in federal support to student financial aid programs and increased tuition costs, this increase in state assistance is greatly needed.

In order to insure passage of the bill, student and parental support is needed. S. 2099 bill must now pass the House of Representatives and be signed by the Governor before December 31, 1982. Please take the time to support this necessary increase in state student financial assistance.

Todd Rundgren’s varied style

by Carol Bailey

Todd Rundgren is a musician who has been active in the rock music scene since the late 1960s. He is known for his versatility and his ability to adapt to different musical styles. His early career was influenced by rock and roll, but as he progressed, he developed a unique sound that incorporated elements of progressive rock, new wave, and electronica.

One of Rundgren’s most distinctive attributes is his ability to experiment with different genres. He has worked with a variety of artists and groups, including The Beatles, The Who, and W抬头s of Honor. His collaborations have resulted in a diverse range of music, from pop songs to avant-garde compositions.

Rundgren’s songs often feature complex arrangements and unconventional structures. His use of electronic instruments and production techniques has been influential in shaping the sound of contemporary music. His influence can be heard in the works of many modern artists, including Beck and Radiohead.

In addition to his musical career, Rundgren has also been involved in film and television. He has written music for several films and television shows, including the popular television series "The Smashing Pumpkins.

Overall, Todd Rundgren’s varied style has made him a legendary figure in the rock music world. His innovative approach to music has inspired countless musicians, and his influence continues to be felt in the industry today.

Barry Hurst: Attitude is key in boxing
By Mark McMichael

HURST'S ATTITUDE IS KEY
Barry Hurst's attitude is key in boxing, as he is one of the most successful boxers in the sport. Hurst's fighting style is known for its power and aggression, and his attitude on and off the ring is said to be one of the reasons for his success. Hurst's approach to boxing is to always give his best in every match, and his attitude is said to be an inspiration to many younger boxers. Hurst's attitude in the ring is also said to be decisive in his victories, as it allows him to stay focused and determined in the face of adversity. Overall, Hurst's attitude in boxing is not only important for his own success, but it also serves as an example for younger boxers to emulate.

Depth factor important for hoopsters
By Mark McMichael

INTIMIATING OPPONENTS
The depth factor is important for hoopsters, especially in games where the team is playing against a strong opponent. To maintain a good pace of the game, the team needs to have a balanced depth and not rely on just one or two players to carry the load. Depth means having players who can step up and contribute in their absence, and it is important for a team to have a good mix of senior and junior players. As the season progresses, Depth allows for better planning and flexibility, and it is a crucial factor for any team to succeed. Depth also provides opportunities for the younger players to develop their skills and gain experience, which is important for the team's long-term success.

Rams hockey: Look for a few surprises
By Paul Dvorak

HOCKEY SALES MANAGER
Rams hockey is looking for a few surprises this season, as the team has a new coach and a new attitude. The team is said to be more focused on winning and improving, and the new coach has brought new strategies and tactics to the game. The team is also said to be更加 diversified, with players from different backgrounds and playing styles. As the season progresses, the team is expected to perform well and make a few surprises in the games. Overall, the Rams are looking to make a name for themselves and surprise the opponents with their improved performance.
