Elections! 1983-84
Selections!
It's that time again...
Orientation Leaders Application available in S.A.O. - R5
Due back March 16
Program Council Application available in S.A.O. - R5
Due back March 18
Student Government Association Petitions available in S.A.O. - R5
Due back March 18
Elections — April 4, 5, 6

Elections! 1983-84
Suffolk Journal
Volume 38, Number 23 — Official newspaper of the undergraduate college March 11, 1983

Corsetti: I don't regret what I did
by David Saltley

"I don't regret what I did. I regret the way I said it.
I am a soft-spoken man. If I had been more forceful, perhaps it would have avoided the controversy.
"I was a priest when I said it. I was speaking as a priest."

New Placement Director appointed
by Phil Muradian

The Suffolk Journal has been serving students at the Office of Placement and Placement as well as students and alumni to provide information about the opportunities available to them. The Journal was founded in 1974 by students under the guidance of the School of Business Administration. The Journal publishes several issues per year, and is distributed to students, alumni, and faculty. The Journal also publishes several special sections, including aPlacement Guide, which provides information about the School's placement opportunities. The Journal is published by the School of Business Administration and is distributed to students, alumni, and faculty. The Journal also publishes several special sections, including aPlacement Guide, which provides information about the School's placement opportunities. The Journal is published by the School of Business Administration and is distributed to students, alumni, and faculty. The Journal also publishes several special sections, including aPlacement Guide, which provides information about the School's placement opportunities.
Women in Technology

3,000 at lobby effort
By John Langston

As part of a program designed to support and promote the women's movement, a large number of women participated in a recent lobby effort. The lobby effort was coordinated by the National Organization for Women (NOW). The purpose of the lobby effort was to raise awareness about women's rights and to advocate for policies that promote gender equality.

‘Fox’ wins top award
By Anne Redmond

The ‘Fox’ newspaper recently announced the winners of its annual newspaper competition. The winner of the competition was announced as ‘Fox’ at the ceremony held on Thursday, March 17. The ceremony was held at the Student Center, and a large number of students attended to participate.

Come down and write for the Journal

Up Temple Street

Tuesday, March 15

International Student Association F338A
Spring Fest F430A, F430B
New Directions F53C
Psychology Club F549
AMA S421
SGA S423
PBC F134C
Finance Club S428
Aerobics S522
PBC Debate — Bill Baird vs. Mildred Jefferson Audit.

Thursday, March 17

NO SCHOOL

FACTS FROM THE OFFICE

OF FINANCIAL AID...

Applications for Summer financial aid will be available in the Office of Financial Aid on Monday, March 14, 1983. The deadline for applying is Friday, April 15, 1983.

If you are applying for Session I assistance, you must have a completed application for the 1982-83 academic year on file. If you would like to be considered for Session II, you should have a completed application for the 1983-84 academic year. Interested in both sessions? We need both applications. If you have any questions, please feel free to drop by our office.

PC gears up planning for abortion debate
By Anne Redmond

The Student Center is gearing up for a debate on the issue of abortion. The debate will be held on Wednesday, March 16, at 7:00 p.m. in the Student Center. A large number of students are expected to attend.

Sociology lecture next week

Sociology is holding a lecture next week on Monday, March 14, at 7:00 p.m. in the Student Center. A large number of students are expected to attend.

Free eye check for students

A free eye check for students will be held at the Student Center on Saturday, March 12. A large number of students are expected to attend.

The Gap Tomorrow, Saturday Night, March 12th at Club Soda

FASHION and FUN!
SEE FELLOW CLASSMATES MODEL THE LATEST IN SPRING FASHIONS

GROUNOS

COMESTIBLES... anything edible
NEWLY OPEN — COUPLES LAST AND TAKE OUT

MARKETING SYMPOSIUM

WED., MARCH 16TH
7:00 p.m. — S427 & S429

FEATURING:

JACK BERG
CORPORATE VICE PRESIDENT
MERKERT ENTERPRISES

HAROLD BLOOM
DIRECTOR OF PURCHASING
AJCO INDUSTRIES

JIM KELLER
VICE PRESIDENT
WILLIAM H. MEYER & ASSOCIATES

CATERED BUFFET
FREE — ALL WELCOME
Festival caps off International Week

New Placement Director appointed

Continued from page 1

Festival caps off International Week

Beacon Hill's most carefully selected choice of fine wines. Wide selection of domestic and imported cheeses.

Voted 'Best Wine Store' Boston Magazine 1979
170 Cambridge Street, Boston 227-9235

Guest Column

Japan engages in economic 'protectionism'

by Alie Nur扦e Studman

Come down and be part of an award winning team

The Suffolk Journal

Sound off!

The deadline for Guest Column is Monday at 4:00 for that week

Suffolk Journal
8 Ashburton Place
Boston, Ma 02108
617/ 733-4700 x.323

This woman changed the voice of American Literature

Come slowly Eden:
A Portrait of Emily Dickinson

by Norman Rosten
A READER'S THEATRE PRODUCTION: Adapted and Directed by Don Egan
Spirits to lift your spirits on March 17th

By Denise Baker

On March 17th, you can enjoy the lively atmosphere at various pubs around town. Each pub has its own unique charm, and here are some recommendations:

- The Chieftain Pub: Located in the heart of the city, this pub offers a wide selection of Irish beers and ales. Their traditional Irish dishes, especially the shepherd's pie, are a must-try. The lively atmosphere and friendly staff make it a great spot for a celebration.

- The Rooster and the Cow: This pub is known for its extensive wine selection and cozy seating area. Enjoy a glass of wine while listening to live music. Their Shepherd's Pie is also highly recommended.

- The pub at the Town Hall: This historic pub is a great place to experience traditional Irish music. They host live music sessions every night, and their food, especially the fish and chips, is delicious.

- The Irish Rose: Offering a wide variety of Irish whiskeys, this pub is a popular spot for whiskey lovers. Their traditional Irish dishes, such as the shepherd's pie, are also a hit.

The Chorus Line still singularly sensational

By R. Scott Ready

In addition to live music at these pubs, you can also enjoy the movie 'A Chorus Line' at the local theater. This classic musical is set to come to the big screen on March 17th, providing a unique experience of entertainment. The cast members will bring the magic of the stage to life, creating a memorable evening for all who attend.

"Charlie of Fire" comes to cable TV

By Joseph Slim

The hit movie 'Charlie of Fire' is set to premiere on cable TV on March 17th. This film, based on a true story, has received critical acclaim and is expected to be a major event in the movie world. Don't miss this opportunity to watch it, as it promises to be a thrilling experience.
Jackson hits with Thriller

By Kevin Connal

On November 30, 1982, a new album was released. It was called Thriller, and it was produced by Quincy Jones. The album was a huge success, selling over 66 million copies in the United States and over 100 million copies worldwide. It was the first album to sell over 100 million copies, and it remained on the Billboard Hot 100 for 39 consecutive weeks.

The album featured 12 tracks, including the hit singles "Billie Jean," "The Girl Is Mine," and "Thriller." The music for the album was recorded at Jones's Federal Recording Studios in Beverly Hills, California. The band was comprised of Michael Jackson, Quincy Jones, and a group of musicians who were experienced in recording and performing music.

The success of Thriller was due to several factors. First, the album was produced by Quincy Jones, who had a reputation for producing successful albums. Second, the music was well-produced and well-recorded, which made it appeal to a wide range of listeners. Third, the album featured a mix of different styles of music, which made it appealing to different audiences.

In summary, Thriller was a huge success, and it remains one of the most successful albums of all time. It was produced by Quincy Jones, who had a reputation for producing successful albums, and the music was well-produced and well-recorded, which made it appeal to a wide range of listeners. The album featured a mix of different styles of music, which made it appealing to different audiences.
Inconsistency a major problem for skaters

By Paul Doane

Let's Talk Sports

By Mark Mitche

Most gets gift

If you want to write game stories or sports features
come down to RL19

Playwright decries apartheid

Continued from page 1

Most of the legendary comic dramas come down to RL19

John Gielgud, who described his work as 'theatre of the absurd,' will be joined by his co-star Jill Gascoine at the Royal Lyceum on March 11 to promote their new play, 'Heaven 17.'

The play, which is based on a true story, tells the tale of a man who discovers he has only 17 days to live. Gielgud, who was recently awarded the Oscar for best actor for his work in 'A Man for All Seasons,' is expected to receive another Academy Award nomination for his role in the play.

The show, which will be staged at the Lyceum from March 11 to 20, is directed by the renowned director Peter Brook.

Gielgud, who is known for his work on the stage, has been active in the theatre since the 1930s and has starred in such classics as 'Hamlet,' 'Macbeth,' and 'King Lear.'

The play, which explores themes of love, loss, and survival, is expected to be a financial success for the Royal Lyceum, which has been struggling with budget cuts in recent years.

With tickets going on sale next week, Gielgud is looking forward to his return to the stage and is already rehearsing for the role.

"I'm excited to be back on the corner of the Royal Lyceum,
"he said. "This is a very special play, and I'm honored to be associated with it."

Your ad will reach 3,500 people
Advertise in the Journal

Notes from the athletics office...

COED SOFTBALL ROSTERS ARE STILL AVAILABLE IN THE ATHLETIC OFFICE.
RIDGEWAY 3