Puzzled by poll responses

Editor

(When you are trying to make a decision, it is often useful to think through the implications of different options. In this situation, you might consider asking yourself: What are the consequences of choosing one option over another? How will this decision affect me in the long term?)

Sincerely,

Paul R. Kean

Rams jolt Jumbos, lose to Stonehill

In the first play of the game, the Rams stopped the Jumbos deep in their own territory, and forced the visitors to punt. This was the start of a successful Rams defense, which held the Jumbos scoreless, limiting them to just one field goal.

True confessions of a hoop hater

By Paul Donovan

I love watching basketball. I love the intensity, the strategy, the athleticism. But I hate it. I hate the way it's played, the way it's coached, the way it's marketed. It's a sport that has become too commercialized.

Hoopsters come home, belt Barrington

By Bob O'Connor

The Rams exploded on the court, scoring more points in the first half than they had in any game this season. The defense was also key, holding Barrington to just 24 points.

Undefeated hoopettes keep rolling

By Paul Donovan

The Rams women's basketball team continued their unbeaten streak, winning their next two games in convincing fashion.

No basketball here

By Bob O'Connor

The Rams men's basketball team was officially declared ineligible for the playoffs due to a series of academic violations.
