Why you should be in Washington DC

March 26!!!

1. During the last three years education funding has been cut by over 21%.
2. Drastic cuts in financial aid have been proposed for this year.
3. These cuts include elimination of funding for the national direct student loans, the state student incentive grant, the supplemental educational opportunity grant.
4. These proposals would result in the loss of 91,000 student aid awards and greatly endanger access to higher education.
5. Because you can make the difference!

Because it’s a lot of fun.

Look for more details and see you on the 26th.

Living a life of quiet desperation

by Robert DiBiasi

Father's Day is a time, above all else, to honor the man who raises a boy to become a man. It is a time to thank him for the guidance and values he provides as he shapes the character and outlook of his son.

A Red Sox pre-analysis

by Paul Chase

The Red Sox manager had his last season in Boston Tuesday when he announced he was resigning effective April 15. This came only a day after the team’s final game of the 1978 season. Team owners had not yet made the official announcement.

Terry Steinbach, the team’s third baseman, said that he would return to the starting lineup for the team’s final game. The other players said they would not play in the final game. They had already been notified by Steinbach on Tuesday that he would be the starting catcher and leadoff hitter.

Steinbach was called up from the minors in mid-March when the team’s regular catcher, Bill Campbell, got injured. Campbell is expected to return to the starting lineup when he recovers from a shoulder injury.
