A Live Aid view from London

by John Nicholson

Live Aid is an all-day, all-night, all-people humanitarian concert which has been organized to raise money to help the victims of Ethiopia's famine. The concert will be broadcast live from London, and it will feature some of the biggest names in music. Among the artists scheduled to perform are U2, Pink Floyd, Elton John, and Bruce Springsteen. The concert is being held to raise funds for the relief effort in Ethiopia, and it is expected to be one of the largest and most successful events in the history of live music.
