Men's basketball
Rams defend pride; 96-88

Rams players and coach Jim Peluso plan strategy

How to buy shades.

How to get the look you want.

Tuition on the rise
Full-time: up $756

Suffolk police arrest two

Bolling on black politics

Hovey lectures against war, draft

(continued on page 2)
SIDETRACKS

Krawiec shares time with Suffolk

by Joe Rehbur

Having just returned from a trip to New York City, where he performed various shows, Krawiec shares his experiences with the Suffolk community.

Krawiec, a well-known comedian, performed in several clubs across the city, including the famous Stand-Up Club. His stand-up comedy act, which focuses on personal anecdotes and observational humor, was met with great audience appreciation.

"It was an amazing experience," Krawiec said. "Performing in front of a live audience is always challenging, but the energy and response from the crowd are always rewarding."

During his trip, Krawiec also visited several museums and galleries, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the MoMA. He expressed his admiration for the artworks and the creativity displayed by artists from different eras.

"Each city has its own unique art scene," Krawiec said. "New York is no exception, with its diverse range of galleries and museums."

Krawiec also attended several musical performances and concerts, including a Broadway show and a jazz concert featuring renowned musicians.

"The musical performances were amazing," Krawiec said. "The energy and passion of the performers were truly inspiring."

Krawiec enjoyed a variety of food, from classic New York pizza to trendy street food. He shared his thoughts on the city's diverse culinary scene.

"New York is a food lover's paradise," Krawiec said. "The city offers a wide range of options, from traditional to innovative."

Overall, Krawiec's trip to New York City was a memorable one, filled with laughter, learning, and inspiration.

The mystery of Nutrasweet

by Rick Dunn

A new ingredient in many of your favorite foods and beverages, Nutrasweet is quickly becoming a household name. But what exactly is Nutrasweet and why is it so popular?

Nutrasweet, also known as Aspartame, is a non-nutritive sweetener that is about 180 times sweeter than sugar. It is derived from a natural substance found in the stevia plant, which is native to South America.

"Nutrasweet is a great way to add sweetness to your foods and drinks without adding calories," Dunn said. "It's a great option for those trying to reduce their sugar intake or for those with diabetes."
ARTS

Pink is pretty disappointing

By Rick Devlin

Andrew McCarthy and Molly Ringwald are too in love in Pretty in Pink.

John Cryer, Annie Potts, and Molly Ringwald in Pretty in Pink.

Hollywood Vice Squad should be jailed

By Joe Stover

Detective Hawkins (Leon Kennedy) is threatened by Mr. Wash in Frank Gorshin.

The Clan is unbearable

Dennis Hopper as Aggi in Clan Of The Cave Bear.

The language of the truncated is still pretty much the same. It's all full of the familiar, musical, poetic, and metaphorical language that we're used to hearing. The new language is different, but it still sounds familiar. The poem is about the power of the tribe and their connection to the land.

Big Deal: Energetic and entertaining

Big Deal: The North Face by Matthew W. Keating is a suspense thriller about an adventure in the Alaskan wilderness. The story follows a group of hikers who become stranded in the wilderness after a sudden storm. The group must work together to survive and find their way back to civilization. The movie is shot in a beautiful, raw, and picturesque location, creating a sense of awe and wonder. The characters are dynamic and engaging, with well-defined personalities and clear motivations. The movie is well-paced, with a balance of tension and action, making it an exciting and thrilling experience. The cinematography is stunning, with beautiful shots of the Alaskan wilderness, capturing the beauty and harshness of the landscape. The music complements the visuals, creating a mood of suspense and tension. Overall, The North Face is a compelling and entertaining movie that keeps the audience on the edge of their seats. It is a must-see for adventure fans and anyone looking for a thrilling and immersive experience.
MUSIC

Benatar treats the Centrum right

Benatar's latest album, "In the Heat of the Night," offers a mix of rock, pop, and R&B. The album features upbeat tracks like "The Sound of a Gun" and more introspective songs such as "Secret Love." Benatar's powerful vocals and energetic performances continue to captivate fans. The album is available in stores now.

How to buy a performance.

1. Decide on your budget and the type of performance you want to attend.
2. Research available performances and venues.
3. Check for any discounts or special offers.
4. Purchase your tickets online or at the venue's box office.

Word of mouth

Word of mouth is a powerful marketing tool for concerts and theater shows. Positive reviews from friends and family can influence your decision to attend a performance. Don't forget to leave your own review once you've attended an event.

Horse's Neck: Townshend's penance

In this new play, Townshend explores the complex relationship between a father and son. The story is set against the backdrop of the iconic Doors of Perception and features a cast of seasoned actors delivering powerful performances.

Suffolk Student Theatre Proudly Presents

Arthur Miller's THE CRUCIBLE

Directed by Matthew Pistone

Starring Benatar's latest album, "In the Heat of the Night," offers a mix of rock, pop, and R&B. The album features upbeat tracks like "The Sound of a Gun" and more introspective songs such as "Secret Love." Benatar's powerful vocals and energetic performances continue to captivate fans. The album is available in stores now.

How to buy a performance.

1. Decide on your budget and the type of performance you want to attend.
2. Research available performances and venues.
3. Check for any discounts or special offers.
4. Purchase your tickets online or at the venue's box office.

Word of mouth

Word of mouth is a powerful marketing tool for concerts and theater shows. Positive reviews from friends and family can influence your decision to attend a performance. Don't forget to leave your own review once you've attended an event.

Horse's Neck: Townshend's penance

In this new play, Townshend explores the complex relationship between a father and son. The story is set against the backdrop of the iconic Doors of Perception and features a cast of seasoned actors delivering powerful performances.

Suffolk Student Theatre Proudly Presents

Arthur Miller's THE CRUCIBLE

Directed by Matthew Pistone

Starring
1986 American League Preview
Bluejays to repeat: As to surprise

By: Michael Maginnis

The Kansas City Blue Jays have been one of baseball's most exciting teams in recent years. With a record of 105-57 and a championship title in 1985, they have set the bar high for 1986.

The Blue Jays are expected to go back-to-back, with a strong lineup that includes stars like George Bell, Bo Jackson, and Pat Borders. However, their competitors, the Cleveland Indians, also have a potent lineup and could pose a significant threat.

Despite the Blue Jays' success, some experts believe the team's young players could struggle in the spotlight. However, their manager, Jim Leyland, has expressed confidence in his team's ability to succeed.

The season will be closely watched as the Blue Jays and the Indians battle for supremacy in the American League. It will be exciting to see how the teams perform against each other.

Suffolk students tour Soviet Union

By: Elizabeth Anderson

Suffolk University has announced plans for a student tour of the Soviet Union, set to depart in March 1986. The tour is being organized by the department of international studies, and will provide students with an opportunity to learn about the culture, history, and politics of the Soviet Union.

The tour will include visits to major cities such as Moscow, Leningrad, and Kiev, as well as smaller towns and rural areas. Students will have the opportunity to interact with local residents and gain a deeper understanding of the country.

Applications are currently being accepted, and interested students are encouraged to contact the department of international studies for more information.