LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sirs:

I am writing to express my concern regarding the current state of student involvement at the university. As a member of the student body, I have noticed a trend of disengagement and apathy among my peers. Many students seem to be more focused on their personal lives and social activities than on the intellectual and academic pursuits of the institution.

There are several initiatives in place to encourage student involvement, such as clubs and organizations, but these seem to be attracting a smaller and smaller number of participants. I believe that the administration should be doing more to foster a sense of community and encourage participation among the student body.

Sincerely,
[Name]

BOSTON AREA JOB FOR '86 GRADS

You're only days from graduation and you haven't lined up a job. If you want to work in the Greater Boston area, Job Fair '86 is your opportunity to talk to employers who are interested in hiring recent college graduates.

Job Fair '86 is held on Thursday, June 19th, 1-5 p.m. at the Rosenhan School Community Campus, 333 Washington St., Newton Centre. Admission is free. Employers representing a variety of fields will be recruiting for entry-level positions in banking, broadcasting, health care, higher education, media, and retail. Bring plenty of resumes to hand out.

The Campus is conveniently located near the intersection of Routes 128 and I-95. Shuttle buses will run every half hour from the Newton Centre stop on the MBTA Riverside Line to the Fair.

The city of Newton and the Newton Symphony are sponsoring the event in coordination with Combined Jewish Philanthropies, the Greater Boston Newton-Medford-West Suburban Chambers of Commerce, Mass. Division of Employment Security, Metro South-West Employment and Training Administration, and Operation ADELE of Greater Boston.

For more information, please call Diane Maroney-Dame (617) 965-7940.

Stones clean up on Dirty Work B.B. King boogies Into the Night

By Dan Harris

The Stonemasons' band, made up of Mary Karachi, Mary Fado, and Mary Kean, were asked to do a cover of the Eddie Cole hit, "Dirty Work." The song was well received, with some students saying it had a "dirty" ring to it.

The band also played a cover of the B.B. King hit, "Boogie With Me." The performance was well received, with some students saying it had a "boogie" ring to it.

The Stonemasons' band is set to play again next week. They will be playing covers of other popular hits.

Cave Dogs, Shakers impress

By Vincent Magrini

Although the show was a minor attraction, the band was quite impressive. The band members were dressed in black and white, with some members wearing black suits and white shirts. The band's music was lively and energetic, with members playing the trumpet, guitar, and drums.

The band members were well-coordinated, with each member playing their instrument with precision. The band's performance was well-received, with some students saying it had a "shaker" ring to it.
