AVC To Distribute Matchsticks

Suffolk University's AVC chapel held its annual scavenger hunt for the first time. The AVC distributed match sticks to every member of the student body, and several seconds later the whole campus was alive with a contagious spirit of competition.

The AVC has traditionally sponsored a scavenger hunt, but this year they decided to include matchsticks for added excitement.

KERENSKY PLEADS BALANCE FOR OUR TROUBLED WORLD
BY BERTON M. KRINSKY

"We must unite and have a destroy communist aggression before it is too late."

By this means, and by this method, we have to show the \"end of a thing, a battle of war.\" These were the dynamic words of Alexander Kerensky, the one time premier of a Russian democratic state.

HBO DANCE

were called back for an encore. Cute little Phyllis closed the musical evening in piano renditions. The highlight of the evening\'s affair was the presentation of prizes.

Prizes Given

A jug of caviar (a hobo delight) was first prize, went to Phyllis Terkildsen, for the most ridiculous clothes.\n

The Suffolk University Italian Club hosted the hobo convention every Friday of the month. The Club meets regularly in the morning, and on Friday the convention is held.

The Suffolk University Italian Club has started the year with an election of officers and entrance into the American National Convention of the Italian Club. The club has been active in the past year and has organized a number of events. The club is planning to continue its activities and to expand its membership.

The Suffolk University Italian Club includes the following officers:

President: Joseph Huguet
Vice President: Ruth O'Garra
Secretary: Michael Ceremonies
Treasurer: John Pearse

The club is planning to organize a number of events, including a benefit concert, a dance, and a dinner. The club is also planning to hold a scholarship fund-raising event.

The club is open to all students, regardless of nationality. The club is proud of its diverse membership and is committed to promoting Italian culture and language.

S.N. Basketees Receive Large Turnout—At 'Y'

Suffolk's basketball team, with a year of competitive play under its belt, is looking forward to greatest season. Sixty-eight candid. dating turned out for the first practice session at the Army-Navy Y., Charlestown, and some of the new players all seemed up to good.

Opponents this year will denitely give us top notch competition, especially Becker College. No dout, this game will be the biggest card on the Royals' schedule. Last fall Becker College, with a speedy, tricky squad, lost to the NCAA champions, Holy Cross, by only six points.

Lettermen Remain
Coach Charlie Lew was extremely pleased at the mass turnout and when asked about the future of the team he said, "It's a little early to say if we will win or lose, but I think we will produce a team that the school will be proud of."

Seven lettermen from last year's team are back to bolster the squad. They include: J. Wallace, Foster, Steagrand, Fritcher, Goldberg, Stowman and Sandford.

The first game will be played on December 1 at the Association College in Worcester, followed by Lowell State, Worcester State, Bridgewater State, Harvard (JV), Becker College, and nine other teams will be announced later. Two games will be played in the Boston Arena.

Authoritative states that a public address system may be installed in the auditorium soon. When that time comes students will have to do their sleeping at home.

Drama Workshop To Present New Play

The drama workshop has started a new year with casting for their new play, "Fashions Or Life"

Suffolk.

The play will feature new faces and figures. The action will be of the same high calibre that was shown in the production of "The Animal Kingdom" last year.

We believe that this year's play will be a big hit. We hope to complete rehearsal so that we may get a return engagement with BridgeWater State.

Suffolk soccer.

Suffolk's soccer squad has been informing the sources that the whole squad has showed hustle never before demonstrated by any other previous team. Congratulations are in order for the following men; Anderson, Belford, Sturman, Wulf, Macnow, Novak, Snelling, Burress, Burrows, Swansburg, R.

In their second game of the season over third game, the Royals, after trailing Bridgewater when Szemkowicz faced the camera. Score 3-5.
