Ind. Relations Clinic First In History of S.U.

The first Industrial Relations clinic in the history of Suffolk University was held Tuesday between 2 and 4:30 p.m. in the basement of the new Administration Building.

The clinic was put on by the Industrial Relations Department of the university.

A faculty member of the department, Dr. D. Donald Fiorillo, a member of the department, said that the clinic was designed to give students an opportunity to learn about industrial relations.

The clinic was open to all students, and there were about 200 attendees.

Dr. Fiorillo said that the clinic was successful, and he was pleased with the turnout.

He also said that he hoped to continue the clinic in the future.

Suffolk Stars Shine As Audience Applauds Varsity Variety Show

Audience appreciation ran high as the first Variety show displayed the best of Suffolk’s talent in the auditorium Monday, Nov. 10.

The Variety show, sponsored by the Varsity Club, offered a wide range of talent, from singers and dancers to comedians and magicians.

The show was a huge success, and the audienceapplauded for over an hour.

Rec. Hall Remains Mess Mop-up Drive Continues

Deforest Terms Mess As Emotional Outlet

"Let's knock the W-K out of Washing- ter," offer the corridors of S.U. still echo that cry of reform.

Cone battles still avoid the racks, but no longer present a hazard to careless strollers.

Now, students secretly slip the bottles under the chairs, keeping the way clear and comparatively safe.

Basketball players continue their battle, but the foul line has been reduced from ten to five.

Law students no longer block the exits; they have moved to the book store, where once again they are busy answering prospect passengers.

New Couches a Title More Care on the New Couches

Law students no longer thi

It is a game of waiting. The battle of wits has resulted in a stalemate, and the students prove to be less slovenly if the administration would improve the rec hall.

The administration. The new rec hall.

To improve conditions for the betterment of students in general, the student seeks the cooperation of the administration. The new couches bring a new opportunity to care.

The administration, the student, and the couches all work together to improve the conditions of the rec hall.

New Tax Collector Is Suffolk Alumnus

Roger M. Foley, a Suffolk alumnus, was recently given the post of Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of Massachusetts.

Mr. Foley replaces Dennis Deegan, who was implicated in tax fraud.

Following is a letter received by President Burke from Mr. Foley:

Dear Mr. Burke:

As an alumnus of Suffolk University School of Law it gave me great pleasure to receive your congratulations and best wishes on my appointment as Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of Massachusetts.

I have no hesitation in assuming the responsibilities of this position, particularly as far as the legal aspects are concerned because of the basic training I received at your Law School.

You can be assured that I shall perform the duties of this position in such a manner as to reflect credit on the University from which I possess a LLB degree.

Respectfully yours,

Roger M. Foley

Suffolk Hoopsters Lose To Brandeis In Scrimmage, 39-34

A pre-scheduled scrimmage at Waltham High on Tuesday night, Feb. 26, saw a Suffolk basketball team bow to Brandeis 39-34.

The Rams stepped in to the last period and started to break the deadlock. It was a point for point battle in the early moments of the fourth, but Brandeis, by passing high to their 69th center, jumped to a five point lead and managed to hold it for the remainder of the game.

Woops—Another One!

Broadway will move to the Suffolk Auditorium when the "Suffolk Follies of 1953" presented sometime in January.

Under the direction of Man- nyl Strauss, Jeannette Mannen- sky, and Alan Ablow, the Follies will be a variety type show with all of Suffolk's outstanding talent taking part.

The photos shown below de- picting the before and after conditions of the Recreation Building furnished by the SUFFOLK JOURNAL.

No Score

The Suffolk Business Club will hold its last dinner of the present semester at Eddie Davis' Steak House near Copley Square on Wednesday, Dec. 15 at 6 p.m. Letters have been sent to over 120 alumni inviting them to attend the dinner.

The Business club has 98 paid-up members and total membership is over 150. It is the largest club in Suffolk for the second straight year.

The club represents from the pre-legal, government, and liberal arts departments and aside 37 paid-up members in the night schools.

One of the significant benefits offered to its members by the club is a chance to gain wide knowledge of the scope of job opportunities in the field of business.

Knowledge obtained from prominent speakers affords members the advantage of knowing first-hand information in practical business.

Mr. Florida's Industrial Management night class and the evening class members of the business plan to sponsor prominent speakers for the club meetings.

Members will have the opportunity to ask questions on these occasions, and, moreover, to personally meet these influential businessmen.

Field trips to nearby establishments will give members even closer contact to the field of business.

Continued on Page Four
To those who graduate from this University with just a scroll, the editor would like to clarify a misinterpretation. The lead story of the last issue, concerning class spirit, was not directed to memories and not a warm feeling of contribution along with a book of order for the Varsity club. Shanahan et al., take a bow. May this school have seen in years. Congratulations are in order for the Varsity club. Shanahan et al., take a bow. May this school have seen in years. Congratulations are in order for the Varsity club.

Bearing the brunt of their apathetic brothers, it is directed now a thing of the past and smiles and contented looks are accepted the burden of expense and also have not all had two minutes for the main building and four minutes for the other student organizations will do what the problem is. Usually she can solve it, know in 15 minutes just how to say a belated “Thank you, Miss Mac.” We say it for ourselves and the others who are appreciative.

Suffolk University Building, 20 Derne Street, Boston, Massachusetts. Subscriptions are for 1 year, $1.00 per year. Single copies, $.10.

Features - John Barrett, Howard Lewis, Jesse Swinger, Star. Patrons to the Beacon.

The recent fire drill has proved that we have college students in our building and not children. The test took only two minutes for the main building and four minutes for the annex. This was a far cry from the previous time of nine minutes. Congratulations.

The yearbook editors are not receiving too much cooperation in their work. The students have not unanimously accepted the burden of expense and also have not all had their pictures taken. There is no possible excuse available to any students for their failure to act as a part of the whole. Our country was built upon the unity of man for the sake of all, but we apparently have students who could show the Revolutionists better methods.

The nervous strain of preparation and anticipation is now a thing of the past and smiles and contented looks are their successors, for the big night has passed. The Thanksgiving Eve dance it was the best dance that this school has seen in years. Congratulations are in order for the Varsity club. Shanahan et al., take a bow. May your spirit of doing for others, as you do for your new members, engulf the world.

In answer to the president of the Senior Class, your editor would like to clarify a misunderstanding. The lead story of the last issue, concerning class spirit, was not directed to the members of your class, or other classes, who are bearing the brunt of the apathetic brothers. It is directed to those who graduate from this University with just a scroll and not a warm feeling of contribution along with a book of memories.

Yearbook subscriptions are also due. Subscriptions have fallen short of expectations. All seniors are requested to get their five dollars in, either to Ted Newcomb or Miss MacNamara.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor;

In your last issue you featured a story on the apparent listlessness of class spirit. You said it was “at an all time low.”

I disagree. The spirit evidenced by the Senior class this year has been excellent. The committee chairman have been performing their duties diligently and efficiently. Most of these fellows have part-time jobs, yet they manage to keep the events of the Senior class progressing in a rapid and effective manner.

I believe credit should be given to those unused workers who are making the Senior class a credit to the standards of S. U.

The Freshman, Sophomore and Junior classes are also doing a fine job to start the avalanche of school spirit on its way.

Sincerely,

Mike Driscoll

The nervous strain of preparation and anticipation is now a thing of the past and smiles and contented looks are their successors, for the big night has passed. The Thanksgiving Eve dance it was the best dance that this school has seen in years. Congratulations are in order for the Varsity club. Shanahan et al., take a bow. May your spirit of doing for others, as you do for your new members, engulf the world.

In answer to the president of the Senior Class, your editor would like to clarify a misunderstanding. The lead story of the last issue, concerning class spirit, was not directed to the members of your class, or other classes, who are bearing the brunt of the apathetic brothers. It is directed to those who graduate from this University with just a scroll and not a warm feeling of contribution along with a book of memories.
Go Lucky!

LUCKIES
TASTE BETTER!

It takes fine tobacco to give you a better-tasting cigarette. And Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. But it takes something else, too—superior workmanship. You get fine, light, mild, good-tasting cigarette. And Lucky Strike takes both.

That's why Luckies taste better. So, Be Happy—Go Lucky! Get a carton today!

Of all the cigarettes we tried,
Just Luckies had the best.
The old flavor, better taste.
Makes Lucky Strike the best.

Alan C. Trumbull
University of Cincinnati

STUDENTS!
Let's go! We want your jingles! We're ready and willing and eager to pay you $25 for every jingle you use. Send as many jingles as you like to Happy-Go-Lucky, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y.

FOR THAT IN-BETWEEN SNACK OR MEAL—IT'S THE

White Rose Coffee Shop
160 CAMBRIDGE STREET

Just around the corner of Temple St.

"THE BEST COFFEE IN TOWN"
The furor was soon quieted, the appearance of Suffolk’s favorite family-to-be, (Ablow and ezansky), along with bachelor Corey. Their song was “Pretty Eyed Baby.”

A short, peppy musical interlude was furnished by Tony Gal, piano; Ted Richardson, drums; and Alan Alford, guitar.

SUFFOLK ICEMEN
TIE M.I.T. -6-6
The Suffolk hockey team met and tied M.I.T. at Lynn Arena by a score of 6-6, on Tuesday night, Nov. 29.

M.I.T. scored first but this was soon remedied when Tony Olivieri scored for S.U. M.I.T. led at the end of the first 20 minutes, 2-1.

The Blue and Gold failed to score in the early moments of the last period, but after Jim Freely scored, Tony Oliveri tied it up in the last minute and 19 seconds. M.I.T. failed to score.

SUFFOLK CANTEEN
MENU
(Sandwiches)
- CORN BEEF .................. 30
- ROAST BEEF ................ 30
- CHICKEN SALAD ........... 30
- TUNA FISH SALAD ....... 35
- EGG SALAD ................. 35
- SWISS CHEESE (on dark) .. 20
- BOLOGNA ................. 20
- PIES ......................... 15
- COFFEE and PASTRY .... 10
- MILK (3 kinds) ......... 10

ALL SANDWICHES SOLD AT THE CANTEEN ARE HOME-MADE

“If you like our food, tell others; if not, tell us.”
—Help Keep Your Canteen Clean—
CANTENE HOURS: 8 A.M. - 3 P.M.